

Should I send my child to school?

If your child is too sick to pay attention in class, might have COVID-19, or has a fever, do not send your child to school.

If your child had close contact with someone with COVID-19 or has COVID-19 symptoms, have your child tested for COVID-19.

Call your medical provider or the school if you have any questions.